4 2 2

A triumph of minimalist architecture amongst the exclusive surrounds of Alcorn Street, 'Cream House' is a zen-like coastal retreat befitting the natural beauty of its location. Designed by award-winning Byron Bay practice Davis Architects, the single-level four bedroom residence exudes a relaxed Australian ambience. Featured in Vogue magazine, the home features travertine tiles and American Oak timber throughout the open-plan design, with the expansive living area opening to a central terrace with plunge pool. Framed by landscaped gardens, it's a luxurious sanctuary for families seeking a timeless beachside escape.

Located in prestigious beachside Suffolk Park, it's mere steps to Tallow Beach and a short stroll to local cafes and
